It's Time to Fall Back

In March, we sprang forward and now it's time to fall back. For states that observe, Daylight Savings Time ends the first Sunday in November. You might be thinking – we don't need the extra hour in 2020, let's move on to 2021. However, changing the time, even if it is only by one hour, gives all of us an extra hour of sleep. Whether you're a fan of disrupting your body clock twice a year or not, there are benefits to change throughout the year and this might be one of them.

MOVE-MBER

As Americans, we are always on the move. While the COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic forced many of us to slow down and reflect, most of us are seeing parts of our lives pick back up. At the firm, we have a few team members that have children and they are all back to school and have been for a couple months. While that has been a challenge with virtual learning and protocols, it has been a step towards normalcy again.

School isn't the only thing tied to a sense of "normalcy". You may have noticed that we've made some changes to our attorney and staff crew. In August, we welcomed Miranda Holbrook, attorney. In September, we welcomed Amber, client intake and relations specialist. In October, we brought Bradley Clark, attorney, on board with us. You can learn more about Brad on page 2 of this issue. Overall, we maintained our strong team during the COVID-19 pandemic and have grown to be even stronger today.

We want to challenge all of you to make moves this November. We hope that you've made the move to get out and vote. No matter what side you stand with, exercising your right to vote is a privilege. November is also often filled with family, friends, food and giving thanks. We want to express our gratitude to all of you who receive this newsletter each month (and actually read it!) – we hope that as we roll into the holiday season that you are staying safe, expressing gratitude and making positive moves, personal or professional. Until next time.

Meet the Team

Bradley Clark, criminal defense attorney for over 11 years joined our team last month. Learn more about Brad below!

Who inspires you and why?

Bryan Stevenson, founder and executive director of the Equal Justice Initiative. He has fought for justice in individual cases and spearheaded systemic change. He is a tireless advocate for equal justice, and a truly noble man.

What was the best concert you ever attended? What is your favorite song from that artist?

I saw Kanye West in a small club in St. Louis in 2003 before "The College Dropout" was released. He was doing songs from it and his mixtapes and it was apparent at the time he'd become a huge star. My favorite Kanye West song is "Flashing Lights".

Where's your favorite place in the world?

Old San Juan, Puerto Rico.

What's your favorite movie? And why?

Raiders of the Lost Ark. I love adventure films and Egypt.

What is something that most people don't know about you?

I write music in my spare time, but I don't play it for many people. If you see one of the movies I make, I typically write and perform the soundtracks.

Do you have a favorite family tradition? If yes, what is it and why do you love it?

Every year on the day after Thanksgiving, my family and my friends get together to have a Thanksgiving Olympics. We compete in different sports and academic activities. It gives everyone an opportunity to move around and have fun in a way we don't typically. People drive for hours to come and we stream it on Facebook for those that can't make it.

Do you follow sports? If yes, favorite team and sport.

Yes. For better or worse, I am a long-time fan of University of Kentucky Football. I like rooting for the underdog, I'm a defense attorney.

What's your favorite recipe?

Rick Bayless' Chipotle Shrimp (Camarones Enchipotlados) and Curried tempeh stir-fry with black rice.

Have you picked up a new hobby or TV show since spending more time at home (COVID-19)?

I've been building lots of large Lego sets with my six-year-old son, Bram.

Here is a Pirate Island we built recently. After we build them, we make movies with them.

Q: What is the difference between DUI and OVI?

A: In some states, they do mean different things but in Ohio DUI, OMVI, DWI, DUI all mean the same thing. It doesn't really matter what they call it. If they called it an OVI or they called it a DUI, the fact of the matter is you're facing a serious criminal charge.

You need an attorney that is experienced in DUI defense and at Suhre & Associates we focus on that. We have a team of attorneys who have spent their entire careers developing and expanding on their ability to give a great DUI defense to our clients.

Thanksgiving Eve is coined one of the biggest bar nights of the year. While the COVID-19 pandemic might influence those statistics for 2020, nonetheless please be sure you're staying safe. If you plan to drink, don't drive. If you're driving, don't drink. It's that simple.

We're getting close to Thanksgiving and that means more people will be hitting the road to visit with family and friends. There are several things you can do to make your travels safer. First, be sure that your car is in good working order. Things like burnt out headlights or worn out windshield wipers should be fixed now. It's also a great idea to have a roadside emergency kit in your vehicle. Having a flashlight, first-aid kit, tools, and a full-size working spare provide peace of mind and are critical in the event they're needed.

If you're ever involved in an accident, there are certain things to remember. Life safety first: move your vehicle to a safe location if possible; if there are any injuries call 911. Be aware of the risk for a second accident caused by yours. Do not stand in the roadway near the damaged vehicles, go to a safe place and wait for the police. If it's safe to do so, be sure to collect information from the other driver(s). Things like names and addresses, witness information, and photos of the vehicles can be very useful later on.

A few good rules are:

1. Do not sign anything unless it's a citation for the police (if you don't sign then they can take you in and make you post a bond)
2. Do not admit fault, even if you think you caused the accident
3. If it's safe to do so, take photos of the accident scene, and
4. Contact your lawyer to assist in opening a claim with your insurance company and/or the insurance company of the other driver.

If you are ever involved in an accident - whether you're cited or injured - we're always happy to discuss the matter with you to see if there's anything we can do to help.

Recipe Roundup

Pumpkin Roll

Pumpkin Roll Cake

- 3 eggs
- 1 C sugar
- 2/3 C pumpkin
- 3/4 C flour
- 1 tsp baking powder, ginger, nutmeg
- 1/2 tsp cloves, salt
- 2 tsp cinnamon

Cream Cheese Filling

- 2 C powdered sugar
- 8 oz cream cheese
- 1/4 C butter
- 1/2 tsp vanilla

Cake

Sift flour, sugar, seasonings and baking powder in a large bowl. Add eggs + pumpkin. Mix well.

Pour into standard sized sheet pan lined with parchment paper. Bake at 375 degrees for 12 minutes. While cake is still warm, sprinkle with a light layer of powdered sugar. Invert on clean towel and roll up. Let cool at room temperature.

When cooled, spread cream cheese filling and roll cake. Refrigerate and serve chilled.

Filling

Mix butter, cream cheese vanilla and powdered sugar. Beat until creamy and smooth.

Tips

Rolling the cake while warm will help reduce cracks. Be sure to use a towel that does not have a lot of fibers (like a tea towel) and use powdered sugar on the towel to help with sticking.
